Community Nominations

- Nominate outstanding colleagues to recognize their efforts
- Nominations due by 15 July

Greetings Colleagues,

We are pleased to announce the awards call for our upcoming 2016 NASA Cost Symposium. In the intervening year since our last Symposium, there has been a great deal of hard work completed by both outstanding individual performers and estimating teams throughout our Agency! We all know the importance of recognizing people who have done outstanding work. It is now time for each of us to nominate individuals that have distinguished themselves through their accomplishments, dedication, leadership, and team work over this past year. Please don't miss this opportunity to write up and submit award nominations for those you feel are deserving of recognition.

We are accepting nominations for the following annual award categories:

- The NASA Cost Estimator Leadership Award
- The NASA Cost Estimator of the Year Award
- The NASA Rising Star Award
- The NASA Cost Estimating Team Award
- The NASA Cost Estimating Support Contractor of the Year Award
- The NASA Top Community Support Award
- The William S. Rutledge Life Time Achievement Award

The selection process and criteria for the awards, along with the requirements and format for each award are located at http://nasa.gov/offices/ocfo/cost_symposium. Please use this information and follow the instructions contained in those documents.

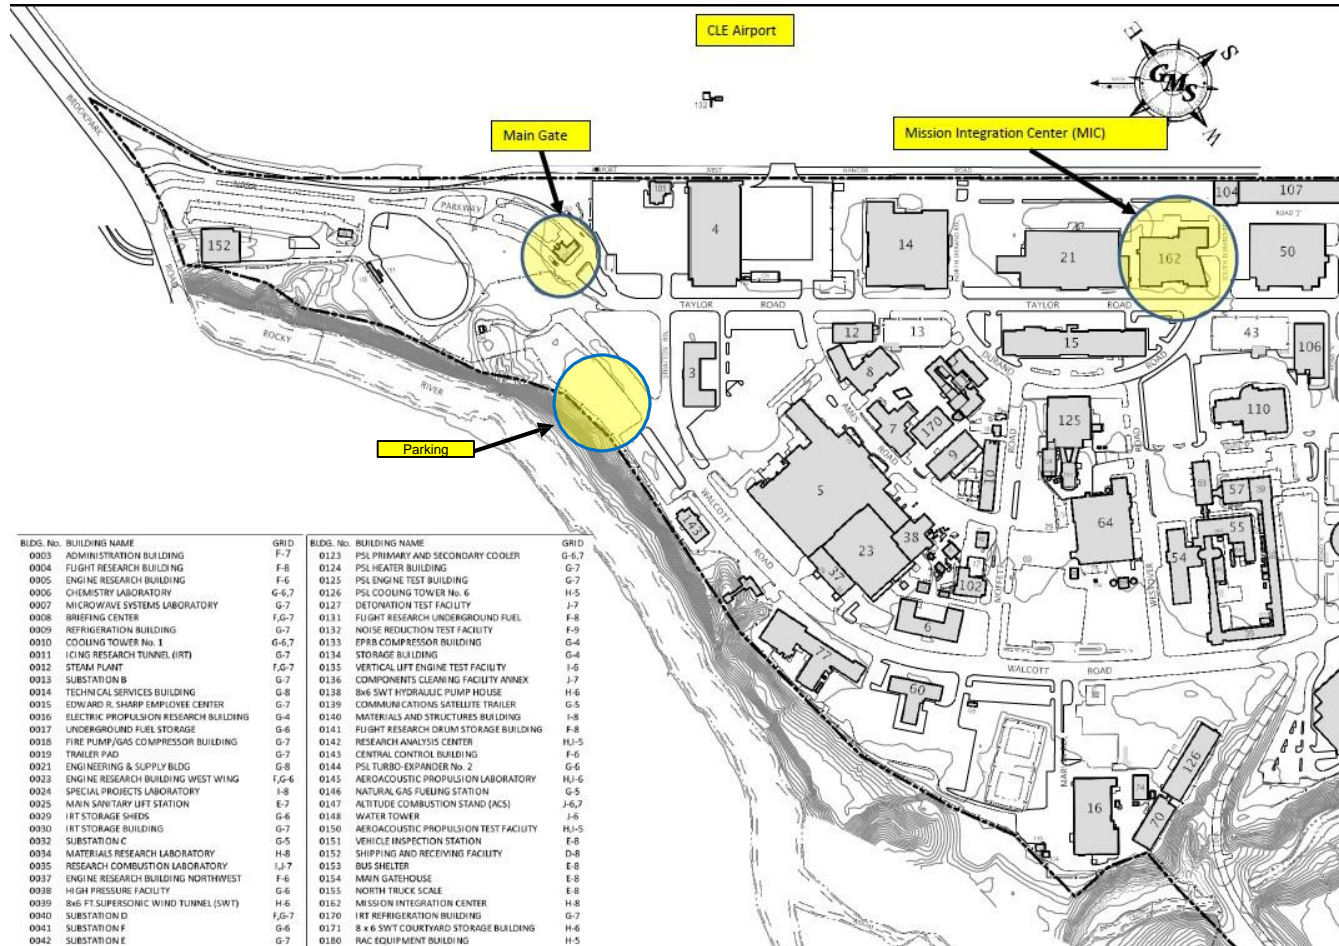

The awards will cover the period of August 1, 2015 – August 1, 2016. Nominations can be submitted by anyone in our NASA estimating community, but they must be emailed by close of business July 15th, 2016 to the Mr. Eric Plumer: Eric.Plumer-1@nasa.gov

Awards will be presented to the recipients at our annual NASA Cost Symposium which will be held August 23-25th at NASA Glenn Research Center

Please ensure every effort has been taken to widely distribute the announcement of this awards call throughout our NASA cost community. Thank you for your support!
